Summer Break! Let's Get Ready

What are everyone's plans for the summer break with the pandemic regulation loosening up?

We still have to be mindful of social distancing and having masks on when needed and required. There are many things to do during summer yet we must find common ground with children before to dive into the summer break. Here are our top 4 activities to have a happy and safe summer break with children.

1. Make a List

Making a "things to do or want to do" list really supports both children and family members to think and act with the same goal in mind. It also helps to have all ideas in one space so no one idea slips off. Brainstorming together really helps individuals in the group to understand other's point of view and thoughts.

2. Sharpen Your Skills

Whether you and your child want to elevate cooking skills or writing skills, you both will need enough time and space. Summer break will be perfect to elevate their skills and have fun. You can have a reading challenge with children and sharpen their academic skills. There are numerous sources online and offline that will support children with literacy and academic thoughts...

Reminders

- Emergency Comfort Kit: If you are new to our program for the summer, please assemble an emergency kit for the first day of your child's attendance. We must need children's immunization record and photo before the start date.
- Please note, summer camp schedule may change due to weather condition.
- For Summer Camps, please send the following items every day:
 - towel
 - bathing suit
 - lunch with sandwich, fruit, etc. (no warm-up lunches)
 - water bottle
 - sunscreen (labelled with name and to remain at daycare)
 - comfortable, closed toe outdoor shoes (no flip flops)
 - Note: bike days! please send a bike and helmet for these days
- As the weather is getting warmer and sunnier, please remember to send sunscreen, hats, and anything else necessary to protect the little ones from the sun. Please label these belongings as well.
- REMINDER: if children are not attending daycare on any given day, please notify staff so that we know not to expect them.
- Scholastic flyers have been sent through Himama. Our class code is RC149292 !
