5 FANTASTIC CHRISTMAS IDEAS TO DO AT HOME

MAKE COLORFUL MERRY CHRISTMAS AND HAPPY NEW YEAR MESSAGE CARDS

Writing messages and letters is always special part of Christmas preparation. Let your children help you with this. All you need - some cards, colorful markers, and some creativity to write messages for merry Christmas and happy new year. It would be a loving reminder for children's grandparents, aunties, and aunts who are living far away and missing their time with family.

SET PROJECTOR AND THE LARGE SCREEN FOR KIDS' CHRISTMAS MOVIE TIME

Have a cozy family evening watching one of the Christmas movies together or provide your children with snacks and let them invite friends for children's only movie night. You don't have much to do - just bring a projector screen and pick up your children's favorite Christmas movie.

ENCOURAGE THEM TO CRAFT THEIR OWN CHRISTMAS TREE

Buy some felt fabric, scissors, cutters, and some shapes to cut the Christmas crafting. To create Christmas Tree, you can use your imagination or find some "Easy DIY Felt Christmas Tree" for Toddlers on YouTube.

Be flexible with children's age. Teenagers may do everything by themselves, younger kids may need your help with cutting and supervision during the process, and for very young kids, you can simply purchase ready-made Christmas...
