EXPLORING LOVE THROUGH PLAY, KINDNESS, AND CONNECTION

Love is one of the first emotions children experience and understand through everyday moments. Through play, children learn kindness, empathy, and connection while building meaningful relationships with others.

At Parkland Players, we support children in exploring love through cooperative play, shared experiences, and positive interactions. These moments nurture emotional awareness, communication, and a strong sense of belonging

LEARNING ABOUT TRADITIONS THROUGH LUNAR NEW YEAR

Lunar New Year invites children to explore traditions, symbols, and new beginnings through curiosity and play. Through hands-on experiences, children discover colors, patterns, and cultural meaning while developing respect and appreciation for the world around them.

At Parkland Players, we support children in exploring Lunar New Year through open-ended play, creative expression, and shared experiences. These moments encourage curiosity, communication, and a sense of connection to different cultures and traditions
